

Reinvent what it means to be an entrepreneur—you don't have to do it alone.

Join us to gain new perspectives about what it means to create, grow, and lead a business.

Here's how you will benefit:

- Get a fresh look at yourself and your company
- Gain greater clarity about your best next steps
- Learn new leadership skills and expand your vision of what's possible
- Find greater satisfaction in your business and personal life
- Receive helpful feedback from highly trained coaches and your trusted peers
- Connect with other entrepreneurs and leaders to share resources and ideas

Here's how it works:

- You'll receive a complimentary 30-minute individual intake session with Daniel and Debra
- Ongoing monthly meetings, co-led by professional coaches on relevant topics
- Each member will have 10-15 minutes to share triumphs, concerns, and receive feedback
- Group is limited to 10 participants ensuring everyone has a chance to participate fully
- Online discussion board to keep conversations going between gatherings
- Discounted fee of $75 per month for the first three months (Regularly $100 per month.)

Meeting details:

We meet the third Tuesday of each month, 7 to 9 p.m. You're invited to arrive at 6:30 for networking. Location: 3616 21st Street in San Francisco's Noe Valley. Easy street parking and one block from Muni.
